

THE LATIN TRADE SYMPOSIUM & 17TH ANNUAL BRAVO BUSINESS AWARDS

OCTOBER 28, 2011

Flashing cameras, tributes and applause greeted the 2011 honorees of the 17th BRAVO Business Awards at the annual gala. Some 400 leaders from business, financial, government and non-profit sectors feted the award winners, from corporate leaders to Dominican President Leonel Fernández, who was honored with a Lifetime Achievement Award. The October 28 black-tie ceremony was held at the Four Seasons Hotel in Miami.

The celebration included a special video message from former Colombian President Álvaro Uribe — recipient of the 2010 Lifetime Achievement Award — for the 2011 honoree, President Fernández. The gala capped a day of activities that began with the Latin Trade Symposium, an annual conference on business, economics and politics in Latin America.

The Latin Trade Symposium is organized in partnership with the Inter-

American Development Bank and the Americas Society/Council of the Americas.

Not present: Banco de Mexico Governor Agustín Carstens, who accepted the Financier of the Year award via video, and Alex Behring, managing partner of 3G Capital and chairman of Burger King, who had been named Investor of the Year.

Special thanks to the following organizations for their support of the 2011 BRAVO Business Awards: presenting sponsor InterContinental Hotels Group; gold sponsors Chevron, Copa Airlines, HSBC, Right Space Management and Zenith; silver sponsors AES, Bupa (British United Provident Association), FTI Consulting Inc. and SAP; partner Ashoka; media partners CNN en Español, The Financial Times and PR Newswire; and communications partner República.

Nominations for the 2012 BRAVO Business Awards will open at www.ltbravo.com in December 2011.
